

Patricia A. Sirowich
President

Pat is the founder of PBIRx[®] Inc., celebrating 25 years in 2018, with its corporate office located in Milford, CT and a second location in St. Louis, MO. When Pat identified Pharmacy Benefit Management's excessive profits, she created a business model for PBIRx[®] that is unique to the prescription benefit market place as a true client advocate. PBIRx[®] provides a multitude of solutions using cutting edge technology and human intelligence to manage pharmacy costs based on various client needs and cultures.

As one of the ten founders of Express Scripts, she was able to bring over four million lives with 2,000 clients to Express Scripts from 1988 through 2000 giving her a unique history and understanding of the evolution of the Pharmacy Benefit.

Prior to Express Scripts, Pat worked in various health care industries including mail order pharmacy, pharmaceutical manufacturing, and Yale University School of Medicine.

Pat attended Yale University, University of New Haven and South Central Community College. She enjoys her Block Island, Rhode Island second home, gardening, reading non-fiction, travelling and spending time with friends and family.
